

OMNI-LITE INDUSTRIES APPOINTS INVESTOR RELATIONS CONSULTANT

Omni-Lite Industries Canada Inc.

OML-TSX VENTURE

CERRITOS, CALIFORNIA, October 17, 2011 – Omni-Lite Industries Canada Inc. is pleased to announce that it has engaged Barry Clark managing partner of Regal Barrington, as a member of the Company's Investor Relations team.

Mr. Clark will serve to increase awareness of the Company in the investment community and will help coordinate Omni-Lite's public and investor relations activities throughout the United States. Mr. Clark will provide corporate information to his following of investors and will also communicate the investment merits of the Company through his relationships with investment banks, institutions, stock brokerage firms, media, and analysts. Mr. Clark anticipates conducting road show meetings in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Orange County and San Diego in early December and New York City and Long Island in January.

Subject to approval by the TSX Venture Exchange, this Investor Relations Agreement covers a period of three months from October 17 to December 16, 2011 and January 9 to February 8, 2012, at a cost of $5,000 per month.

Barry Clark does not currently hold any shares on Omni-Lite Industries but may purchase shares in the Company from time to time for investment purposes.

“We are pleased to bring Barry on to the team with his wealth of experience in various roles with EF Hutton, Merrill Lynch, and Prudential Securities,” stated Thomas N. Peterson, Investor Relations Manager. “His role in helping bring the growth story of Omni-Lite to the U.S. investment community will help increase awareness in the value that the Company has created.”
